9. Conclusion of Contract

The conclusion of contract is governed by the provisions of the Swiss Code of Obligations. A reservation is considered as confirmed once a deposit or credit card guarantee is received. We reserve the right to charge cancellation costs to the credit card provided to us by way of guarantee.

10. Liability of the Hotel

The Hotel is liable for all items brought onto the premises by guests in accordance with statutory provisions. Liability for minor negligence is expressly excluded. Should a guest come to harm or be dissatisfied with the Hotel's services, he is to notify the Hotel immediately; otherwise he no longer will be able to assert any rights.

Should the Hotel fail to provide the agreed number of hotel rooms, it is liable to the customer for the losses incurred, provided such losses can be demonstrated. Should the Hotel be unable to provide the reserved rooms on the guest's arrival, it will arrange equivalent alternative accommodation in another hotel and pay for all additional costs such as transport, accommodation, etc., over and above the original prices as contracted.

As a matter of principle all claims against the Hotel become statute-barred within six months of the guest's departure, providing the mandatory statutory provisions do not specify longer periods.
